

CITY CONSULTANTS BUILD NEW HOUSE SITE

EXETER management and technology consultancy Revell Research Systems has designed a website for a new firm of relocation experts.

West Country Home Finders, based near Exeter, started trading this month.

Fiona Burgess, who worked on the project for Revell Research Systems, said: “Businesses are increasingly turning to the internet to help them beat the recession. West Country Home Finders wanted a website that was easy to find, truly ‘tasted’ of Devon and was accessible to all.”

West Country Home Finders founder Lisa Morgan-Anstee said: “Our new website is an important part of our new strategy to find clients.”
